NEWS RELEASE

Commodore Awarded Construction of Prototype Container Store at Thriving North Shore Mall

NEWTON, Mass. (December 19, 2011) – Commodore Builders announced today that it has been awarded the construction of a 25,000 SF stand-alone prototype store for the fast-growing, national specialty retail chain, based in Dallas. This is the third Container Store to be built in Massachusetts. A Simon property, it will be located at the North Shore Mall, in Peabody.

The Container Store originated the storage and organization retail category. Once complete, the North Shore location will join stores already open in Natick and Chestnut Hill. Preconstruction is underway. Mobilization is scheduled for January, 2012 and project completion is slated for mid-summer.

The Container Store project marks Commodore's third collaboration with CSL Consulting, the owner's representative. "We are delighted to continue building our relationship with CSL," stated Commodore's Sr. Project Manager Derek Manier, who is also working with CSL on a project at Brandeis University.

Commodore Builders provides clients with a wide range of construction management services, from project conception to pre-construction, execution, close-out and warranty service. Commodore's mission is to make the construction process easy for clients and the outcome excellence in execution.

The Container Store is a retail industry leader in storage and organization, providing an innovative product mix, a unique corporate culture and top-notch employees who provide a level of service second to none. The Container Store is dedicated to helping customers get organized, helping them save space and, ultimately, save valuable time.
