Commodore Builders Receives Boston Business Journal's Pacesetters Award

Honored as one of Boston's Fastest-Growing Private Companies

(Newton, MA)--March 13, 2008— Commodore Builders today announced that it will receive The Boston Business Journal's second annual Pacesetters Award. The honor recognizes Commodore's skill in managing a rapidly growing company, showing robust revenues from 2004-2007, and creating business strategies that led to success in a competitive business environment.

"We are proud to be recognized as one of the region's pacesetters," said Joe Albanese, founder and CEO of Commodore Builders. "We believe that our growth results from our team's commitment to execute with excellence in everything we do, on behalf of our clients and ourselves."

Albanese founded Commodore Builders five years ago, building his management team from the top down, an unconventional yet visionary approach resulting in record growth over the last three years, with 2007 sales projections exceeding $80 million. Commodore was also recently ranked No. 386 on Inc. Magazine's 2007 list of the nation's 500 fastest-growing private companies. The firm has reached 743.55% record sales growth from 2003-2006 and plans to continue its rapid expansion.

"Pacesetters was created because it's important to raise the profiles of rapidly growing companies," said Boston Business Journal Publisher Michael Olivieri. "This will help give guidance to the business community as a whole as to what makes a company successful and who they should be seeking out as potential partners."

Commodore will be honored at the Boston Business Journal's Pacesetters Awards breakfast on April 18th at the Sheraton Boston hotel. The 60 companies will be counted down and the No. 1 fastest-growing private company in the region will be revealed. Executives from these companies will also share their ideas on what made them successful and what they hope to achieve going forward. Approximately 600 people from the private, public and non-profit sectors are expected to attend.

Commodore's mission is to set a new standard of excellence for the delivery of construction management services to our clients. Commodore believes that the quality of the construction process is as important as the quality of the construction. From project conception to preconstruction, execution, closeout and warranty service, Commodore's role is to anticipate and manage the risks inherent in construction. Commodore takes charge, so the process for clients is easy and the outcome is excellence in execution.

About the Pacesetters Award:

The Pacesetters list was determined by survey information gathered and analyzed by the Boston Business Journal from private companies throughout the Greater Boston region. Based on the information provided, 60 companies were selected on their revenue growth between 2004 and 2007, which had to exceed at least $1 million as of 2004.
