

Boston Business Journal

Commodore to captain EDC building project

Commodore Builders has been tapped by Education Development Center Inc. to build out a new 120,000-square-foot headquarters at the CenterPoint office park in Waltham. The project is slated for completion next year.

EDC, a nonprofit provider of health and education related services, is currently headquartered at 55 Chapel St.

in Newton.

EDC first announced its plans to move to 43 Foundry Ave. in Waltham in April.

Commodore, which is based in Newton, said construction is expected to be under way by next spring.

— CRAIG M. DOUGLAS